Item 4 – Advisory Business

Prajana Ventures, LLC (“Prajana”) began providing advisory services in August 2024 and its principal place of business in Rock Hill, SC. Prajana is a Delaware limited liability company and is eligible to register as an investment adviser with the State of South Carolina as an internet adviser pursuant to Rule 203A-2(e) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, due to its advisory business being conducted exclusively through a mobile application owned by Prajana Incorporated (the “Wealth Rabbit App”). Prajana is owned by Jason Ackerman, Adam Ackerman, Palanisamy Nagarajan and other owners. Currently Prajana manages $1,189,943.41 in assets.

Advisory Services

Prajana Ventures, LLC works with employers to provide investment options to their individual employees through the Wealth Rabbit App. Prajana exclusively provides investment advisory and discretionary portfolio management services through the Wealth Rabbit App to individual users (“PRAJANA Users”), who are natural persons. Within the Wealth Rabbit App, Prajana Users can employ filtering and search tools to discover and invest in proprietary investment strategies managed by Prajana.

Wealth Rabbit users maintain complete control and discretion when it comes to deciding whether to replicate one or more portfolios within the Wealth Rabbit App.

Prajana does not provide financial planning services or give tax or legal advice. Prajana Users are urged to consult with his or her own advisors with respect to the legal, tax, regulatory, financial, and accounting consequences of an investment in any Premium Portfolio.

User Profiles and Risk Scoring

The Wealth Rabbit App also gathers and evaluates information provided by each Prajana User, encompassing details such as age, income, investment objectives, investment horizon, risk tolerance, and other pertinent information utilized by Prajana to construct a comprehensive user profile, referred to as the "User Profile." This User Profile may incorporate a risk tolerance, which is exclusively determined based on responses provided by Prajana Users during the creation of their profile.

In addition, Prajana Users hold the flexibility to update their User Profile at their discretion. Such updates may or may not result in a modification to the Prajana User's risk tolerance. In all instances, Prajana Users bear sole responsibility for notifying Prajana of any alterations to their financial situation, investment objectives, risk tolerance, or investment constraints.

General Considerations

The Wealth Rabbit App is a mobile and online investment platform, Prajana provides its advisory services primarily online, however Prajana customer support is available for telephone consultation as needed to provide a complete advisory experience to Prajana Users.

Prajana Users should be familiar with investing online and comfortable communicating with Prajana through electronic means. When Prajana Users agree to the terms of the Wealth Rabbit App, they agree to receive all communications and documents electronically (via email or directly through the Wealth Rabbit App). The Wealth Rabbit App is not suitable for Prajana Users if they have limited access to internet or don't have the physical technology required to run the Wealth Rabbit App.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

Prajana Ventures shall charge and be entitled to receive a management fee ("Management Fee") computed on an annual rate based on the value of any assets of the Account ("Managed Assets"). The Management Fee shall be computed daily using the end-of-day value of the Managed Assets, Fees are collected in arrears on a monthly basis. Either the client or Prajana may cancel the agreement at any time with thirty day's notice.

The management fees are as follows:

Asset Range	Asset Fee
$0 – $249,999	0.50%
$250,000 - $499,999	0.40%
$500,000 - $749,999	0.30%
$750,000 - $999,999	0.25%
$1,000,000 +	0.20%

Prajana also assesses a monthly charge to employers of $30 + $1 per employee per month.

In addition, clients will pay some fees through APEX including: the transaction fee (10 cents per trade), Account fees (20 cents per month if less than $1,000), Mutual Fund Fee (if applicable) (0.03% annually), Annual Maintenance Fee ($10 per year).

Item 6 - Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

Not applicable.

Item 7 - Types of Clients

Prajana’s clients consist of individuals, including High Net Worth individuals and potentially their employers. Prajana does not require a minimum account size for opening or maintaining a Prajana User account. Individuals may become Prajana clients by applying to open an account through the Wealth Rabbit App. All required documents and disclosures are executed and presented in the Wealth Rabbit App.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Prajana’s offers its clients, through the Wealth Rabbit Application, the option of five diversified portfolios (“the Portfolios”) designed to meet specific time horizon and risk-return profiles. These portfolios are comprised of financial instruments including Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), Mutual Funds, and individual securities including a mix of equity, fixed income and multi-asset strategies. The investment options are as follows:

- Wealth Rabbit Conservative – Seeks to provide investors with a diversified portfolio primarily invested in fixed income with a focus on income generation and capital preservation.
- Wealth Rabbit Balanced Income – Seeks to provide investors with a diversified portfolio across a balance of fixed income and equity exposure with a bias towards income generation.
- Wealth Rabbit Balanced - Seeks to provide investors with a diversified portfolio across a balance of fixed income and equity exposure.
- Wealth Rabbit Balanced Growth – Seeks to provide investors with a diversified portfolio across a balance of fixed income and equity exposure with a bias towards capital appreciation.
- Wealth Rabbit Growth – Seeks to provide investors with a diversified portfolio focused on growth and capital appreciation.

Portfolio Strategies

The Portfolios are fully discretionary, ETF and/or mutual allocation programs offering a series of model portfolios positioned at various points along the risk/return spectrum. Prajana works alongside third-party managers (“Model Providers”) to develop and monitor these Portfolios.

Methods of Analysis

Prajana offers asset allocation strategies that include allocations to multiple asset classes, such as equities and fixed income. Such strategies typically operate within a target allocation range for different asset classes, and exposures are further determined based on consideration of opportunities within each asset class. Prajana also offers adaptive asset allocation strategies that attempt to reduce the risk of loss or a drop in the value of invested capital that is unlikely to be regained over a full market cycle (i.e., a time period representing a significant market decline and recovery). At the same time, these strategies seek to participate in the upside growth of the capital markets.

The components of each portfolio are selected by the Model Provider with additional oversight provided by Prajana. Prajana conducts an in-depth analysis to ensure the portfolio is designed to achieve an outcome in line with its risk/return goals. Mutual funds and ETFs are generally evaluated and selected based on a variety of factors, including, as applicable and without limitation, past performance, fee structure, portfolio manager, fund sponsor, overall ratings for safety and returns, and other factors.

Risk of Loss

While Prajana seeks to diversify clients' investment portfolios across various asset classes consistent with their Investment Plans in an effort to reduce risk of loss, all investment portfolios are subject to risks. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that client investment portfolios will be able to fully meet their investment objectives and goals, or that investments will not lose money.

Below is a description of several of the principal risks that client investment portfolios face.

Management Risks. While Prajana manages client investment portfolios based on Prajana's experience, research and proprietary methods, the value of client investment portfolios will change daily based on the performance of the underlying securities in which they are invested. Accordingly, client investment portfolios are subject to the risk that Prajana allocates assets to asset classes that are adversely affected by unanticipated market movements, and the risk that Prajana's specific investment choices could underperform their relevant indexes.

Risks of Investments in Mutual Funds, ETFs and Other Investment Pools. As described above, Prajana may invest client portfolios in mutual funds, ETFs and other investment pools ("pooled investment funds"). Investments in pooled investment funds are generally less risky than investing in individual securities because of their diversified portfolios; however, these investments are still subject to risks associated with the markets in which they invest. In addition, pooled investment funds' success will be related to the skills of their particular managers and their performance in managing their funds. Pooled investment funds are also subject to risks due to regulatory restrictions applicable to registered investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Equity Market Risks. Prajana will generally invest portions of client assets directly into equity investments, primarily stocks, or into pooled investment funds that invest in the stock market. As noted above, while pooled investments have diversified portfolios that may make them less risky than investments in individual securities, funds that invest in stocks and other equity securities are nevertheless subject to the risks of the stock market. These risks include, without limitation, the risks that stock values will decline due to daily fluctuations in the markets, and that stock values

Foreign Securities Risks. Prajana may invest portions of client assets into pooled investment funds that invest internationally. While foreign investments are important to the diversification of client investment portfolios, they carry risks that may be different from U.S. investments. For example, foreign investments may not be subject to uniform audit, financial reporting or disclosure standards, practices or requirements comparable to those found in the U.S. Foreign investments are also subject to foreign withholding taxes and the risk of adverse changes in investment or exchange control regulations. Finally, foreign investments may involve currency risk, which is the risk that the value of the foreign security will decrease due to changes in the relative value of the U.S. dollar and the security's underlying foreign currency.

Model and Data Risk. When Models and data utilized by Prajana prove to be incorrect or incomplete, any decisions made in reliance thereon expose clients to potential risks. All models rely on correct market data inputs. If incorrect market data is entered into even a well- founded model, the resulting valuations will be incorrect. However, even if market data is input correctly, "model prices" will often differ substantially from market prices, especially for securities with complex characteristics, such as derivative instruments.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Prajana Ventures, LLC. Prajana Ventures, LLC has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Prajana Ventures, LLC, is not actively engaged in business other than giving investment advice. Both Adam Ackerman and Jason Ackerman currently work for BNA Wealth, a registered investment advisor and broker- dealer. Please refer to supplement 2B for a full listing of Jason and Adam's work experience.

Because clients are enrolled generally through their employer and are self-directing investments through the Wealth Rabbit application and Wealth Rabbit will not be soliciting existing BNA Wealth Clients, we do not believe there is a material conflict of interest between the principals' work at BNA Wealth and Prajana.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics

Prajana Ventures, LLC has adopted a Code of Ethics ("the Code"), the full text of which is available to you upon request. Prajana Ventures' Code has several goals. First, the Code is designed to assist Prajana Ventures, LLC in complying with applicable laws and regulations governing its investment advisory business. Under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Prajana Ventures owes fiduciary duties to its clients. Pursuant to these fiduciary duties, the Code requires Prajana Ventures associated persons to act with honesty, good faith and fair dealing in working with clients. In addition, the Code prohibits associated persons from trading or otherwise acting on insider information.

Next, the Code sets forth guidelines for professional standards for Prajana Ventures' associated persons (managers, officers and employees). Under the Code's Professional Standards, Prajana Ventures expects its associated persons to put the interests of its clients first, ahead of personal interests. In this regard, Prajana

Ventures associated persons are not to take inappropriate advantage of their positions in relation to Prajana Ventures clients.

Third, the Code sets forth policies and procedures to monitor and review the personal trading activities of associated persons. From time-to-time Prajana Ventures' associated persons may invest in the same securities recommended to clients. Under its Code, Prajana Ventures has adopted procedures designed to reduce or eliminate conflicts of interest that this could potentially cause. The Code's personal trading policies include procedures for limitations on personal securities transactions of associated persons, reporting and review of such trading and pre-clearance of certain types of personal trading activities. These policies are designed to discourage and prohibit personal trading that would disadvantage clients. The Code also provides for disciplinary action as appropriate for violations.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

Apex Clearing Corporation (“APEX”) provides execution and clearing services to Prajana Ventures LLC and users of the Wealth Rabbit application. The APEX relationship is managed by several Prajana executives. Prajana Ventures may receive from a broker-dealer or a fund company, without cost and/or at a discount, certain services and/or products, to assist in monitoring and servicing investment accounts. These may include investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to Investment Account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or free consulting services, discounted or free attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational or social events, marketing support, computer hardware or software, and other products used by Prajana Ventures to assist Prajana Ventures in its investment advisory business operations.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

Wealth Rabbit App provides all Clients with continuous access to the App or Platform regarding information about Investment Account status, portfolio allocations, securities, and Investment Account balances.

Prajana Ventures will contact and remind Clients at least annually via electronic channels to request that Clients update their personal information to account for any material changes that have occurred.

Clients have access to current Investment Account balances and positions through the Platform. The Custodian prepares account statements showing all transactions and account balances during the prior quarter. Clients are urged to compare the account statements they receive from the Custodian with those provided on the Platform. All information relating to Investment Accounts is provided on the App. Prajana Venture requests that Clients reconfirm their current profile information as needed and will remind clients at least biannually to update their information on the Wealth Rabbit App.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Prajana Ventures and its related persons do not receive an economic benefit (such as sales awards or other prizes) from any third party for providing investment advice or other advisory services to Clients. However, Prajana Ventures may receive from a broker-dealer or a fund company, without cost and/or at a discount, certain services and/or products, to assist in monitoring and servicing investment accounts. These may include investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to Investment Account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or free consulting services, discounted or free attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational or social events, marketing support, computer hardware or software, and other products used by Prajana Ventures to assist Prajana Ventures in its investment advisory business operations.

Item 15 – Custody

Prajana Ventures does not maintain custody of Client’s funds or securities. All Client Investment Accounts are held with the Custodian. Participation in the Wealth Rabbit App requires that a Client agrees to the Custodian’s customer agreement (the “Custodian Agreement”), whereby the Custodian will carry a brokerage account that holds Client securities and cash and will record Client transactions on the Wealth Rabbit App as well as act as the clearing broker and qualified custodian for Client Investment Accounts. Neither Prajana Ventures nor any investment service provider engaged by Prajana Ventures is responsible for the obligations of the Custodian or any successor custodian. Clients should receive, on at least a quarterly basis, statements from the broker-dealer, bank or other qualified custodian that holds and maintains the Client’s investment assets. We urge you to carefully review such statements and compare such official custodial records to the reports that we may provide to you. Our reports may vary from custodial statements based on accounting procedures, reporting dates, or valuation methodologies of certain securities.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Prajana Ventures currently only provides discretionary services to Clients via its Wealth Rabbit App. Users can select and change models at their own discretion. Prajana Ventures will have the discretion to select and make changes of the investments inside the model for rebalancing and creation of the model selected by the User. Should Prajana Ventures expand its advisory service offering to include non-investment discretion inside the Wealth Rabbit App, Prajana Ventures will revise this section and any other sections of this Brochure, as needed.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Prajana Ventures does not vote proxies on behalf of advisory clients. Clients retain the responsibility for receiving and voting proxies for any and all securities in their portfolios. Upon request, Prajana Ventures may provide advice to clients regarding the clients’ voting of proxies.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Prajana Ventures has no financial commitment that impairs its ability to meet contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients, has not been the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.

Item 19 – Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Prajana’s two principal owners, Jason Ackerman and Adam Ackerman, have been involved in the investment management industry in various capacities since 2015. Jason holds the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) designation and have both earned the Certified Financial Planner (CFP)

Professional Designations, Licensing and Exams

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 75,600 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States. To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning; Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances; Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals. Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks: Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients. CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

The CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT (CPA) designation is a professional certification. In order to obtain this, one must meet the following requirements, which are often referred to as the "3 e's" of education, exam, and experience:

Education

Earn a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution with a focus on accounting or business, and complete 150 college-level credits. This may include additional courses or a master's degree, as some states require 150 semester hours to take the CPA exam. Required courses often include accounting principles, business ethics, business management, finance, statistics, and economics.

Exams

Pass all four parts of the Uniform CPA Examination, which includes multiple-choice, essay, and scenario-based questions. The exam is scored on a scale of 0–99, and you must score at least 75 to pass each section.

Experience

Complete 1–2 years of relevant and verified accounting and accounting-related work experience. One may also need to pass an ethics exam.
